

India Power wins the Asian Power Awards 2015

India Power Corporation Limited won the Asian Power Awards 2015 for the Wind and Transmission & Distribution Project of the Year. India Power were nominated for the “Wind Power Project of the Year” and “Transmission & Distribution Project of the Year”.

The awards were judged by John Goss, Managing Director, Ceejay International, John Yeap, Partner, Pinsent Masons, Mark Hutchinson, Energy Expert, Advisors in Energy and Tim Charlton, Editor-in-Chief, Asian Power Magazine.

We won the GOLD AWARD for Wind Projects in Gujarat, Karnataka & Rajasthan and SILVER AWARD for Transmission & Distribution.

The ceremony was held on 2nd September 2015, Wednesday at the Conrad Bangkok Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand.